

What is RPA :

Robotic Process Automation is nothing but a combination of using various tools and techniques which involves in automating various repetitive processes, tasks which are previously done by human beings in an organization using machine learning and artificial intelligence.

RPA Tools

Course Structure

Digital Nest provides RPA training in Hyderabad so as to widen the scope of this undiscovered topic and to enlighten the students with this valuable knowledge. This will not only give exposure to the students but will also widen their sphere of knowledge with better insights. Our RPA Course is very properly and aesthetically designed, keeping in mind the latest technology advancements and industrial requirements.

The syllabus is designed in a way which is universally acceptable. Though now there are a good number of RPA institutes across the nation, but with our strong knowledge base and extravagant teaching skills, we stand class-apart.

RPA or the Robotic Process Automation training in Hyderabad is an assured way to achieve your desired goals and fulfil your dreams. After learning RPA course from our institute, you can confidently apply in reputed companies and enhance the working speed of all the administrative tasks which increased accuracy. With the human-like interactive models which are based on rule-based business operations, RPA ensures a highly efficient system that is capable of delivering best in class product. RPA course training at Digital Nest is a certified course which is globally recognized and the faculty is at par excellence.

RPA Modules

RPA course is divided into four segments and each of this segments play an important role in the complete understanding of the topic.

- Automation Anywhere Tools

Automation Anywhere Tools training in Hyderabad is a module in RPA course which focuses on understanding automation for any rule-based BPO process with the minimalistic human intervention. For this purpose, this course teaches certain important tools which take of the end-to-end business processes. After completion of this module, you will be in a shape to deliver smart techniques through which a superefficient system can be produced.

- Blue Prism

The module Blue Prism Training in Hyderabad is in great demand looking at the market needs. It acts as a virtual workforce which helps the company to meet the industry standards with a very high level of security, data integrity, data control, robustness, scalability, proper scheduling and change management, all in order to increase the ROI. This is a great module through which the students are introduced with the operational risks that are responsible for the organizational governance and transactional integrity.

- UiPath

UiPath tool mainly focuses on the software automation and the application integration which helps companies identify how the system should be improved in order to meet the business needs. UiPath Training in Hyderabad course teaches this tool to its students with which the customer service and employee productivity can be improved.